Sunshine Predicted for morning and asked to see the superintendent. When she raised her veil the hospital attendants saw she was in tears. Superintendent Pierce appeared almost immediately.

"I am the mother of Faith Willard," said the visitor, in a whisper—"please let me see my baby."

She was taken at once into the hospital office and a telephone message call was put in for the Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Church of the Ascension and foster father of the little girl found in a basket on his doorstep last May. The child is in a dying condition at the hospital.

Detectives Joseph Skelly and Frank Dieschy of the East Sixty-seventh Street station, were sent to the hospital where they questioned the woman to the bedside of Faith until this morning.

The condition of Faith was such that the hospital authorities feared to subject her to any excitement. Twelve hours before her life had been despaired of. At midnight it was hoped spaired of. At midnight it
